OUR MISSION POSSIBLE for SEPTEMBER: LUTHERAN CAMPUS MINISTRY at NORTHWESTERN (LCMNU) -- Lutheran Campus Ministry thanks Trinity for their ongoing support, both financially and with many volunteer hours. LCMNU has been operating virtually since March. We have participated in social justice events, supported the Purple Pantry on campus and Hilda's Place. The Center will still be serving students when the academic year begins, but will be doing it safely and remotely. So no Wednesday night suppers or in-person worship on Sundays. Students will still have 21theo (aka Bible study) on Wednesday evening and Sunday worship, all on Zoom. Pastor Deanna Langle will continue all pastoral services. We invite you to join us for Homecoming on Oct. 4 at 11AM when Jeff Mason, an alum of LCMNU, will be our guest. Jeff is a White House correspondent for Reuters and a former president of the White House Correspondent's Assoc. For more info: — <https://www.lcmnorthwestern.org/> To support this ministry, make checks payable to Trinity and note Mission Possible on the memo. If you wish to give online using Tithe.ly: https://tithe.ly/give_new/www/#/tithe/give-one-time/971797 and indicate Mission Possible. Thank you.
